LINEMAN MET TRAGIC DEATH

Winfred King Electrocutted While At Work Among the Telephone Wires.

Winfred King, a lineman employed by the Southwestern Telephone & Telegraph Co., was electrocuted while at work on a pole at Sixth and Poplar streets this afternoon about 1:45 o'clock while repairing a telephone service in that neighborhood. The young man cut one of the telephone wires and in some way came in contact with a heavily charged electric wire which caused his death. The man was strapped to the pole with his safety belt and he hung among the wires for nearly half an hour until the fire department arrived and cut him down. Efforts were made to revive him when he reached the ground but life was extinct.

The tragic death of the man caused great excitement and a great crowd was attracted by the run of the fire department, Robinson's ambulance and a wagon from the H. I. Holderness Co. to the scene. Not knowing which electric company owned the wire which caused the man's death both companies were notified and the electric current shut off until the man's body was taken from the pole.

Mr. King was about 24 years of age and came here from Blackford, Ky. He lived in this city with his uncle, John King, who lives at 419 East Sixth avenue. He had been working on toll line work for some time and today at noon began work on the repair wagon and had worked little more than an hour when he was killed. He was a roommate of Floyd Gardner, the young man who was killed in a similar manner about two weeks ago.

The body was taken in charge today by Ralph Robinson, who notified Coroner H. E. Williams who at once summoned a jury to hold an inquest over the body. The inquest began at 3:30 o'clock.

King was a Mason and had many friends throughout the city. —Pine Bluff (Ark.) Paper.

The Kentucky Instinct.

Senator Press Maxwell, who passed through Princeton Tuesday en route to Marion from a visit in Ardmore, Okla., declares that Superintendent C. W. Richards has the finest horse and buggy in Oklahoma. —Caldwell County News.

WED WHILE AT-TENDING FAIR

Morganfield, Kv., Sept. 2.—The facts of an unusual wedding in this county have just become public, involving Miss Margaret Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Bartlett, and Samuel Cusic, nephew of Mrs. Bartlett, with whom he made his home.

On Wednesday the young people went to Shawneetown, Ill., to attend the fair, and while there decided to be married. The older people of the household had never suspected that Cupid had come into the home.

The bride is a Catholic, and the young people came home and told of their marriage they were advised that the ceremony would have to be done by a Catholic priest, and that means a dispensation, so, while they await the dictates of the church, the groom is making his home elsewhere and the young bride is at home with her parents. It is thought the ceremony will be performed in about ten days.

Negro City Planned.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 30.—A negro city has been planned for Hortense, Dickson county. Monday a meeting will be held there and an option held on 1,358 acres taken up.

The United Helping Society of Tennessee is back of the project, having already built a number of houses for colored people at Antioch. All available land there has been used. At Hortense, an agricultural and industrial school has been projected and a widows' and orphans' home.

Shift Center of Population 8 Miles.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The center of population of the United States was announced by Director of Census Durand today to be in the western part of the city of Bloomington, Monroe county, Ind. This is eight miles further west than the location announced July 18.

Veteran Steamboat Man

Dies at Evansville, Ind.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 1.—Capt. J. H. Throop, aged sixty-three years, one of the best known steamboat men along the lower Ohio river, died here yesterday. For many years he was United States inspector of steamboat hulls here. He was a native of Smithland, Ky. The deceased had spent practically all his life on the Ohio river.

As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by all dealers.

EATS WHAT HE LIKES AFTER TAKING FREE SAMPLE

It will be welcome news to dyspeptics to learn of a remedy that, in the opinion of thousands, is an absolute cure for indigestion and all forms of stomach trouble, and, better still, it is guaranteed to do so. The remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

We all know the value of pure pepsin in indigestion, and add to this some exceptional laxative ingredients and you have a truly wonderful remedy. Mr. T. W. Worthy of Forsythe, Ga., got to the point where he could not even eat or digest vegetables and after many years of seeking he found the cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. Rudy Kasser of Moline, Ill., was in the same bad predicament with his stomach, took Syrup Pepsin and is now cured.

Hundreds of others would gladly testify.

It is a guaranteed cure for indigestion, constipation, biliousness, headaches, gas on the stomach and similar complaints. A bottle can be had at any drug store for fifty cents or a dollar, but if you wish to make a test of it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will supply a free sample bottle, sent direct to your address. You will soon admit that you have found something to replace salts, cathartics, breath perfumes and other temporary reliefs. Syrup Pepsin will cure you permanently.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

POSTAL SAVINGS SYSTEM INFORMATION FOR DEPOSITORS.

Object.

1. The Postal Savings System is established for the purpose of providing facilities for depositing savings at interest with the security of the United States Government for repayment.

Safety.

2. The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of deposits made in postal savings depository offices with accrued interest as provided by the postal saving act.

Who May Deposit.

3. Accounts may be opened and deposits made by any person of the age of 10 years or over in his or her own name and by a married woman in her own name and free from any interference or control by her husband. No person can have more than one account at any one time.

Interest.

4. No person may open a postal-saving account at any post office who is not a patron of that office.

5. All accounts must be opened in person by the depositor or his authorized representative. After opening an account a depositor may forward subsequent deposits to the post office by mail.

6. Deposits will be accepted only from individuals, and no account will be opened in the name of any corporation, association, society, firm, or partnership, or in the names of two or more persons jointly.

7. No account will be opened in the name of one person in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons.

Service Free.

8. The service of the Postal Savings System is free, and no charge or fee is collected or required in connection with the opening of an account or the withdrawal of money deposited.

Privacy of Accounts.

9. No person connected with the Post Office Department or the postal service is permitted to disclose the name of any depositor or give any information concerning an account except to the depositor himself, unless directed to do so by the Postmaster General.

How to Open an Account.

10. When a person applies to open an account he must furnish the necessary information for the postmaster or his representative to fill out an application, which he will then be required to sign. If the applicant signs by mark his signature must be witnessed by a disinterested person.

Deposits.

11. Deposits are evidenced by postal-savings certificates issued in fixed denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100, each bearing the name of the depositor, the number of his account, the date of issue, the name of the depository office, and the date on which interest begins. The postmaster or his representative will make out a duplicate of each certificate issued, which the depositor will be required to sign and which the postmaster will retain in his records.

12. No account may be opened for less than $1, nor will fractions of a dollar be accepted for deposit.

13. No person is permitted to deposit more than $100 in any one calendar month nor to have a total balance to his credit at one time of more than $500 exclusive of accumulated interest.

14. Savings certificates can not be transferred or negotiated and will be payable only to the person to whom issued.

15. On opening an account a depositor is supplied with an envelope in which he may keep his savings certificates. On this envelope is printed information for his guidance, and also a blank ledger record on which to keep an account of his deposits and withdrawals.

16. In case a savings certificate is lost or destroyed the depositor should notify the postmaster. If deemed proper, a new certificate will be issued upon compliance by the depositor with the necessary requirements.

17. Postmasters are not permitted to receive savings certificates for safe-keeping.

Savings Cards and Stamps.

18. Amounts less than $1 may be saved for deposit by the purchase of 10-cent postal-savings cards and adhesive 10-cent postal-savings stamps. Each postal-savings card contains blank spaces to which savings stamps may be affixed from time to time as purchased, and a postal savings card with nine 10-cent savings stamps thus affixed will be accepted as a deposit of $1 either in opening an account or in adding to an existing account.

19. Savings cards and stamps will be redeemed only by the issue of savings certificates and are not valid for postage. They will not be accepted in exchange for postal-savings cards or stamps.

20. Interest will be allowed on all deposits at the rate of 2 percent per annum, computed on each savings certificate separately, and payable annually. No interest will be paid on money which remains on deposit for a fraction of a year only.

21. Deposits will bear interest from the 1st day of the month next following that in which deposited.

22. Interest will continue to accrue on a savings certificate as long as it remains outstanding, certificates being valid until paid, without limitation as to time.

23. Compound interest is not allowed on an outstanding certificate, but a depositor may withdraw interest payable and include it in a new deposit, which will bear interest at the regular rate.

Withdrawals.

24. A depositor may at any time withdraw the whole or any part of his deposits to his credit with any interest payable by surrendering savings certificates, properly indorsed for the amount desired.

25. A depositor presenting a certificate for payment in full with all interest payable must indorse it on the back in the presence of the postmaster or his representative and surrender it. The postmaster or his representative, if satisfied as to the depositor's identity, will then make payment.

26. When a depositor desires to withdraw only a part of the amount called for by any certificate the postmaster will cancel the certificate and issue a new certificate covering the amount to be left on deposit. The new certificate will be so dated that the depositor will not lose interest on the amount continuously on deposit.

27. When a depositor desires to withdraw merely the interest payable on any certificate, instead of indorsing and surrendering the certificates as in case of full payment, he will be required to give his receipt in duplicate for the amount of the interest paid. The postmaster will enter the interest payment on the back of the certificate and return it to the depositor.

Deposits not Made in Person.

28. When a person who has opened an account can not appear personally to make an additional deposit, because of infirmity or for other good and sufficient reason, the amount to be deposited may be sent by a representative or forwarded by mail. On receipt of the amount the postmaster will send to the depositor the duplicate of each savings certificate to be issued. When the duplicate or duplicates thus delivered have been signed by the depositor and returned to the depository office, the postmaster will send him the original certificates covering the amount of the deposit. New accounts can not be opened by mail. When an intending depositor desiring to open an account is unable to appear in person he may forward the money by a representative, who will be provided with an application form, which must be properly filled out by the intending depositor and returned with the duplicate certificate or certificates.

Withdrawals Not Made in Person

29. When under similar circumstances a depositor can not appear in person to make a withdrawal, a blank order will be furnished for his use upon request by his representative. When such order has been properly filled in and signed by the depositor, with his signature witnessed by a disinterested person, and has been returned to the postmaster, together with each certificate to be paid properly endorsed, payment will be made to the depositor's representative.

30. When a depositor who is unable to appear in person desires to withdraw merely the interest payable on any certificate, the blank order furnished will include receipts for the interest to be paid, upon return of which, properly signed by the depositor, the postmaster will make payment to his representative.

Death of Depositor.

31. In case of the death of a depositor the amount standing to his credit will be paid to the executor or administrator of his estate upon compliance with the necessary requirements. In case no formal administration is desired by his relatives, the postmaster may, if it is deemed proper, be authorized to pay the amount of the deposit, on application in proper form, to the persons entitled to receive it, without the appointment of an administrator.

Account of Woman Who Marries

32. A woman who opens an account and afterwards marries must present her savings certificates at her office in order that the certificates may be indorsed as payable to her in her new name. The postmaster will receive no further deposits from a depositor failing to comply with this requirement, nor will he make any partial or interest payment to her.

Postal-Savings Bonds

33. A depositor will be permitted to exchange the whole or any part of his deposits in sums of $20, $40, $60, $80, $100, or multiples of $100 up to and including $500, into United States registered or coupon bonds bearing interest at the rate of 2½ percent per annum, payable semi-annually, and redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from date of issue, both principal and interest payable 20 years from such date in United States gold coin. Such exchange may be made under date of January 1 and July 1 of each year, provided such bonds are then available.

34. A depositor desiring to convert his savings deposits into bonds on January 1 and July 1 of any year must make application at least 15 days before either of the dates named to the postmaster in triplicate on a form which will be supplied him for that purpose. At the time of making application he must indorse and surrender savings certificates covering the amount of the bonds desired, for which the postmaster will give him a receipt. Interest will continue to accrue on certificates surrendered until the date on which the bonds are issued.

When the bonds applied for are received by the postmaster, the depositor will be notified and the bonds will be delivered by the postmaster on presentation of the receipt for the certificates surrendered. At the same time all interest due on the certificates surrendered will be paid.

35. Savings deposits converted into bonds are not counted as a part of the maximum of $500 allowed one depositor, and there is no limitation upon the amount of available postal saving bonds which may finally be acquired by a depositor.

36. Postal savings bonds are exempt from all taxes for duties of the United States as well as from taxation in any form by or under state, municipal or local authority.

37. Postal-savings bonds can only be procured by the conversion of postal-savings deposits and will not be issued to persons who are not depositors, but whether in registered or coupon form they may, upon receipt by the depositor, be sold and assigned at any time to any person desired.

Information.

38. Further information concerning the Postal Savings System may be obtained by application at any depository office or by inquiry addressed to the Postmaster General, Postal Savings System, Washington, D. C.

SEVEN SPRINGS

We had a nice rain Saturday night. The ice cream supper at Aunt Sallie Boaz's Saturday night, was largely attended. The nice music they had made the occasion a pleasant affair.

Roy Barnett, of near Salom, was the guest of Lee Travis Sunday. He was accompanied home by his aunt, Miss Phoebe Burklow, who will visit them for a few days.

I want to correct a mistake which I made in sending in the names of those who contributed to me in the Caldwell Springs section for the new seats at Seven Springs. I overlooked two names who contributed very liberally and they are as follows: Dan Riley and Mrs. Betsey Brasher.

Mrs. Sarah O'Brien is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Nannie Patton.

W. H. Campbell conducted prayer meeting at this place Wednesday night. He read for his lesson Second Samuels the 18th chapter.

Mrs. Fannie Travis and daughters, Misses Nelle and Miriam, passed through this section Thursday enroute home from the Baptist association. They spent the night with Mrs. Sallie Boaz.

Be sure your sins will find you out. Numbers 32:23.

Corbett Turley, of Caldwell Springs, was the guest of Joe Bell and family

Sunday.

Quite a number from Frances and other communities attended Sunday School here Sunday.

Friends don't forget our dedication the second Sunday in Oct. and be sure and come out on that day. We are proud of our church and will be indeed glad to have your presence with us.

Those who attended the Baptist association at Mint Spring from our neighborhood, were Lee Travis and wife, John Holomon, Freeman McKinney, wife and baby and Sam Travis.

Misses Nola Parish and Grace Vandell, of Caldwell Springs, were visitors at our Sunday School Sunday evening. Come again, girls. We love to have you with us.

Mrs. John Holomon returned home Wednesday from an extended visit to her son, Charlie, at Metropolis, Ill.

Everybody come out to prayer meeting and pray that our Lord will save sinners. Don't wait for the annual protracted meeting to expect souls to be saved, for today is the day of salvation and God says in his word, "To-day if ye will hear His voice harden not your hearts."

FOR MEN

Here's a sock that all men have been looking for.

If you demand trim fitting hose—your own fancy as to weight socks should be—if you have any favorite colors, you will wear Wunderhose to your everlasting satisfaction.

The guarantee feature is especially attractive—there are no darning troubles because new are given free for any that punch through heel, toe or sole within four months of their purchase.

It is surely worth an extra premium to be insured against such an annoyance, and yet the price carries no penalty for this extra service.

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

LILY DALE

Frank Debow is cutting some of his tobacco this week.

Miss Jessie Baker, of Morehead, Ill., was the guest of Mrs. Anna Debow last week.

The farmers are selling their hay from $12.00 to $15.00 a ton.

Grant Travis, of Marion, was the guest of his father-in-law, Bill Jacobs, Sunday.

Miss Susie Russell was the guest of Miss Etta Boisture Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stallions were the guests of their son, Leman, of near Salem, Sunday.

Mrs. Hattie Smith, of Fredonia, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Flora Debow, Thursday.

A crowd of young boys and girls met at uncle Billie Loyd's Thursday night and had a regular old time music. We guess it was quite a surprise to uncle Billie.

The farmers are rejoicing over the change the big rains have made in their tobacco and corn crops.

Mrs. Robert Debow, of Uniontown, who has been visiting at the home of J. A. Ordway, returned home Saturday.

A Torpid Liver is a fine field for the Malarial Germ and it thrives wonderfully. The certain result in such cases is a spell of Chills.

HERBINE

Is a Powerful Chills Tonic and Liver Regulator.

It puts the liver in healthy, vigorous condition and cures the chills by destroying the disease germs which infect the system. Herbine is a fine antiperiodic medicine, more effective than the syrupy mixtures that sicken the stomach; because it not only kills the disease germs, but acts effectively in the liver, stomach and bowels, thus putting the system in condition to successfully resist the usual third or seventh day return of the chills. Herbine is a cleansing and invigorating medicine for the whole body.

INFLAMMATION AND PAIN

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oreston, Iowa.—"I was troubled for a long time with inflammation, pain in my side, sick headaches and nervousness. I had taken so many medicines that I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. A friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to health. I have no more pain, my nerves are stronger and I can do my own work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me after everything else had failed, and I recommend it to other suffering women."

—Mrs. W. M. SEALS, 605 W. Howard St., Oreston, Iowa.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from these distressing ills should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

Powerful Engines For I. C. Road.

Five new passenger locomotives of the Pacific type have been assigned to Paducah. The new engines are five of a lot purchased by the Illinois Central railroad recently. The new engines will be used on the fast passenger runs of trains Nos. 103 and 104 between Louisville and Paducah. One of the engines has been received at the local shops.

Forced To Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers, whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs, are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, La-Grippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Jas. H. Orme's and Haynes & Taylor's, Marion, Ky.

Parcels Post For Rural Routes Promised by Hitchcock.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Postmaster General Hitchcock today indicated, among other things, that he will ask the next session of congress to provide for a parcels post service on rural routes. The beginning could best be made there, he said, and later he would gradually extend the service to include the railway transportation. It would have to be done gradually or it would clutter up the whole system.

Cleaning a Rifle.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 31.—Miss Clara Lambert daughter of Mrs. Emily Lambert, after a target shooting party which she gave this afternoon, accidentally shot herself in the abdomen while cleaning a rifle.

She is nineteen years of age and one of Henderson society's leading figures. She may die.

A sore throat can be treated best from outside. The throat should be rubbed gently with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Apply at night and cover with a cotton cloth bandage; by morning the soreness will disappear. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Jas. H. Orme.

Robinson's Circus Makes Assignment.

Morganfield, Ky., Aug. 30.—The Great Robinson shows, which gave a circus performance here today, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. The liabilities were given at $14,400, while the owners of the show say it is valued at $100,000.

Back salaries for performers are said to be the cause of the assignment, thought it is alleged that the inability of certain owners to agree on matters may be at fault also.

The show came to Morganfield from Louisville yesterday and gave nice performance here today. It will go to Uniontown from here. The intention is to continue performing on the road while attorneys arrange the legal phases of the assignment. The Robinson shows have a good reputation and give a good circus performance. One of the valuable horses in the production died here yesterday.

Sand Contains Big And Little Snakes.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 31.—Trainmen on railways entering South Chicago, especially the sand freights, have made complaint to the Chicago sand companies operating at Miller, east of Gary, that too many snakes are being imported into Chicago. The snakes are plentiful at Miller, where the sand is obtained for track elevation work.

When the cars are unloaded snakes of many sizes and varieties are to be seen, and some of the bolder ones are said to pursue the frightened switchmen. It is asked that the sand companies use lower strata sand so the reptiles will be fewer.

No Need To Stop Work.

When your doctor orders you to stop work, it staggers you. "I can't," you say. You know your weak, run-down and failing in health, day by day, but you must work as long as you can stand. What you need is Electric Bitters to give tone, strength and vigor to your system, to prevent breakdown and build you up. Don't be weak, sickly or ailing when Electric Bitters will benefit you from the first dose. Thousands bless them for their glorious health and strength. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50 cents at Jas. H. Orme's and Haynes & Taylor's, Marion, Ky.

Sommerset Man Saves Lives of Three Children.

Sommerset, Ky., Sept. 2.—C. H. Moore, manager of the Gainsboro Telephone Company, saved the lives of three children this afternoon. The three daughters of John Fish, of the Fish Lumber Co., were boat riding on the lake at the Fair grounds and in some manner the boat overturned with them. Mr. Moore, who was riding around the track, was attracted by the screaming of the little tots and, seeing what had happened, ran to the lake and jumped in, rescuing them just as they were going under. When he finally succeeded in getting them to the bank they were unconscious, but were soon revived. The water was about six feet deep.

Shoots Rapids on a Log.

Sault Ste Marie, Mich. Aug. 27.—While 5,000 persons looked breathlessly on James Pollock, a river man of lower Michigan, successfully shot the St. Mary's river rapids on a log. For his feat he received a purse of $3000. In a canoe with Indian guides Pollock was taken to the head of the rapids. Six minutes later after being whirled about the thousand gigantic boulders and often obscured from view, he emerged at the lower end without a scratch and was picked up by a waiting launch.

Pollock is the first man to shoot the rapids, which are a mile and a half long, unless seated in a boat. After he started expert Indian guides who have shot the rapids for years declared Pollock deliberately courted suicide.

"It was soft money for me" said Pollock after his experience. "I would do it again right away for $50."

GOVERNOR M'CREARY'S OPENING SPEECH

He Begins His Campaign at Bowling Green in a Strong Address That Is Received With Great Enthusiasm.

One of the Largest Crowds That Ever Attended a Political Meeting in the State Greets the Ex-Governor.

He Proclaims Himself in Favor of the Extension of the County Unit Law, and Leaves No Doubt of His Position.

A HEARTY, SINCERE, RINGING DOCUMENT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Sept. 4.—Governor James B. McCreary, Democratic nominee for Governor, opened his campaign in this city today. The largest crowd that ever attended a political meeting here was present. Democratic voters poured in from the surrounding counties to give their personal approval to their party leader and to endorse the platform upon which he is asking the votes of the people. The enthusiasm with which Governor McCreary was received gives evidence of an aroused party spirit, which augurs well for Democratic success.

His speech was a complete review of the political situation in Kentucky and the nation. It leaves no live subject untouched. It calls the Republican party to account for its failures to live up to its platform pledges.

Governor McCreary delivered a masterful speech. He heartily endorsed every plank in the Democratic platform, and left no doubt in the minds of his hearers where he stands on every public question.

His speech in full is as follows:

Judge O'Rear's Resignation as a Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Judge O'Rear, in his Elizabethtown speech, to excuse himself for not attending the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals while a candidate for Governor, referred to his resignation as follows: "My distinguished opponent has held an office of power and dignity as Chief Commissioner, perhaps with some profit, also. He has not resigned from that position, and I hope he will not resign from it."

If Judge O'Rear had asked me about this, I would have prevented him from misrepresenting me. I am President of the American Peace and Arbitration League, which has a large membership in various States, and whose main object is the settlement of international disagreements without war by an international arbitration tribunal.

When I decided to be a candidate for Governor I was unwilling to hold that office and not attend to its duties while a candidate for Governor, and I resigned, to take effect January 1, 1911. My associates tried for a while to keep me in office, but my resignation was finally accepted, and I received no pay from the first day of January, 1911. The letter of the General Secretary of the American Peace and Arbitration League accepting my resignation is as follows:

"April 20, 1911.

"Hon. James B. McCreary, Richmond, Ky.:
"Dear Sir:—In compliance with your proposal at the directors' meeting of June, 1910, to retire January 1, 1911, in favor of Mr. Clark or Mr. Clews, if personal affairs require your attention in Kentucky, and in accord with your recent letter to Vice President Clark, reaffirming the same, your resignation as President of the American Peace and Arbitration League was accepted at an adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors, held at Mr. Clews' office, April 19, 1911.

"Vice President Clark declined the honor on account of business engagements requiring his absence many months in the year, and Mr. Clews was elected as President of the League.

"By unanimous vote of the board you were elected as Honorary Vice President. Kindly acknowledge receipt of this and oblige. Yours truly,
"ANDREW B. HUMPHREY,
"General Secretary."

I was under no obligation to resign, because I did not hold either a State office or a United States office, but I resigned because I was unwilling to neglect the duties of an important office while I was a candidate for Governor, and which I believed would consume nearly one year.

I should not have referred to Judge O'Rear holding an office while a candidate for Governor but for his reference to me.

Judge O'Rear has been, according to his own statement, a Judge of the Court of Appeals for eleven years. He has five years to serve as Judge before his present term expires. For two years it has been currently reported Judge O'Rear would be a candidate for Governor, and for a number of months before the Court of Appeals adjourned for the present summer recess he did not perform the duties of Judge, but was actively engaged making speeches and conducting his campaign and consulting with his political supporters, and he will be absent from his duties as Judge during the months of September and October. The average man will see Judge O'Rear's situation and the difficulty of discharging his duties as Judge during the years he was preparing to be a candidate for Governor, when voters, whose support he desired, had cases before him in the Court of Appeals which involved their property, liberty or life. They will also notice that during the months Judge O'Rear engaged in an active campaign for the nomination and to the campaign after his nomination, although not performing any of the duties of his office as Judge, he drew the salary of that office, which amounted to $5,000 per annum, or $416 per month, and announced that he will not resign unless elected Governor, and that he will appoint his own successor, and not have his successor appointed by Governor Willson. It is no excuse for him, as stated by some of his friends, that in all the history of Kentucky no other Judge of the highest court of the State has ever done before as the jurist candidate of the Republican party is now doing, and that this is the first act of that kind, and therefore should be overlooked.

The Cases Cited By Judge O'Rear Are Not Analogous to His Case.

The cases cited by Judge O'Rear to excuse him for holding the office and drawing the salary of a Judge of the Court of Appeals while a candidate for Governor are not in point, and are not analogous to his case.

Mayor Head discharged all the duties of Mayor while a candidate for Governor. Hon. Ben Johnson attended to all of his duties as a Congressman while a candidate for Governor, and Hon. Ollie James, while a candidate for United States Senator, attended to all of his duties as a member of Congress, and neither of these three men had cases before them in which the voters were interested, whose support they desired; and it may be also said of Judge Paynter, when a candidate for United States Senator only a short time, he remained in Frankfort and attended regularly to his duties as Judge.

Judge O'Rear seems to have overlooked entirely the seventh plank in the Republican platform, which he wrote himself, according to his own admission, and which provides that the judiciary of the State in both the Circuit and Appellate Courts should be chosen on nonpartisan grounds, and the continuance in office of faithful judicial servants should be determined by no other qualification than fitness.

Judge Parker, of New York, who nominated as the Democratic candidate for President, resigned as a Judge of the Supreme Court of New York the day that he accepted the Democratic nomination for President, and his salary was $18,000 per annum.

Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, resigned as President of Princeton University the day that he accepted the nomination for Governor of New Jersey, although he was receiving $10,000 per annum as President of the university, and his salary as Governor was little more than half as much as he received as President of Princeton University.

Robert Riddell, of Kentucky, resigned the office of Circuit Judge when he accepted the nomination as a Democratic candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Judge O'Rear, in his Elizabethtown speech, made a lengthy defense of Senator Bradley's alleged untainted title to his seat as United States Senator, and said: "Senator McCreary, Henry Watterson, Ollie James, Colonel John Allen and Colonel Frank Fehr and a number of other noted Democrats in Kentucky were voted for by those insurgents or bolters, whoever you want to call them, and Senator McCreary never once asked them to change their votes from him, indicating that he was willing to receive the votes of those four Democrats, who afterward voted for Bradley. Judge O'Rear could have avoided misrepresentation or me if he had asked me to tell him the facts.

I was not in Kentucky during the long-drawn-out contest between Beckham and Bradley for United States Senator, but I was in Washington attending to my duties as a United States Senator, and I now have in my possession a letter from Hon. Gus

Richardson, representative from Meade County, in which he says: "I wrote you after a number of ballots had been taken, and it was evident to me that Beckham could not be elected, and as of permission to nominate you if any break should come. In your reply you said positively that you would not permit the use of your name, and that you did not want any Representative or Senator to vote for you under any circumstances as long as Governor Beckham was a candidate."

I also have a letter in my possession from Hon. George T. Harris, in which he says: "You requested me to ask the Democrats in person and privately to not vote for you, as under no circumstances could you accept the office, if elected, while Governor Beckham was a candidate. I did comply with your request, and I did go to Mr. McKnight and stated your request to him, and as the other men that would not vote for Beckham you and I had no influence with, I asked McKnight to see them, and neither of them voted for you after that day."

In the allusions I have made to my distinguished opponent, I only desire to state facts and correct misrepresentations. "His long public career is familiar to all Kentuckians, and I would say nothing to disparage whatever merit he has displayed, or to detract from his standing as a party man."

The Democratic Platform.

The Democratic platform adopted at the State convention held at Louisville, Ky., August 15, reaffirms time-tried and time-honored Democratic doctrines, and it announces up-to-date Democratic principles which are worthy of the support of all Kentuckians.

I endorse the platform which was adopted by the convention. It represents the principles of the Democratic State ticket and presents the policies that will be upheld.

Speaking with candor and deliberation, I can say that in my opinion no better or more appropriate or progressive declaration of principles was ever made in Kentucky by an earnest, intelligent, patriotic body of men, representing the Democrats of every part of the State.

I shall not at this time discuss at length each section of the platform. I hope it will be read and carefully considered by each voter. It is sufficient for me to refer briefly to the subject matter of most of the sections.

The Democratic platform, after pledging anew our faith in and devotion to the time-honored and eternal principles of our party, and reaffirming our faith in successive platforms of the party, and especially reaffirming our faith in and devotion to the National Democratic platform adopted at Denver, Colo., in the year 1908, declares in favor of a direct primary election, the passage of a corrupt practice act, a more efficient system of public schools, woman's suffrage in school elections, abolition of the lobby, the creation of a State utilities commission, uniform accounting system.

Selection of the Prison Board by the Governor instead of by the General Assembly, subject to confirmation by the Senate.

Reform of our tax system by submitting to a vote of the people whether or not they desire to adopt an amendment to our State Constitution broadening the powers of the General Assembly so that it may classify property for the purpose of taxation.

Creation of a Department of Banking, providing for competent inspection.

Wise and conservative laws as will encourage road and bridge building.

Organization and co-operation among the farmers and laborers of the State, and the enactment of such Constitutional laws as will protect them from the greed of the trusts and monopolies of the country, which are the direct fruit of Republican legislation.

Favors laws for the protection from accident and injury of all laborers engaged in hazardous employments, and a wise, conservative law regulating the arbitration of labor strikes and disputes.

Opposition to all mobs and lynchings, and severe penalties on all officers who fail to protect prisoners entrusted to their keeping.

Law prohibiting peonage and female slave traffic, regardless of color.

Election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

Enforcement of the laws and rule of the people.

Religious and civil liberty and unalterable opposition to raising any religious test as a qualification for holding office.

Declares temperance is essentially a moral, non-political and social question, and should not be made a partisan issue between political parties, and favors the extension of the present local option law as applied to the sale of liquors, which has been upheld by our highest court as valid and constitutional, so that the citizens of each and every county in the State may determine for themselves whether spirituous, vinous or malt liquors may be sold therein.

I voted for and I endorsed every section of this platform, and it is proper I should say in this connection that I voted for the first local option law passed by the Kentucky Legislature in 1874, I then being a Representative from Madison County.

At a local option election held in Richmond I was absent attending to my duties as Senator at Washington, except the local option election held March 3 last, and on that day I was compelled to be in Louisville to attend a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee called for that day by the chairman, the main business of which was to call off the primary election which I had advocated, and in which I was deeply interested.

At the recent Democratic State convention I advocated at the Democratic candidates' meeting a declaration to be placed in the present local option law, and it was agreed to by the Democratic candidates, and was put in the Democratic platform.

On this platform of principles Democrats appeal to all Kentuckians, irrespective of previous political affiliations, to support our State ticket and our Democratic candidates.

Judge O'Rear in his speech at Mayfield on the 31st day of August asked me to answer the following questions:
Are you now in favor of the extension of the county unit law in Kentucky, etc., and when did you come to that conclusion?

I have already said in my speech today that I endorse every section of the Democratic platform at the State convention at Louisville on the 15th of August, 1911, but I will say now specifically—I am in favor of the extension of the present local option law as applied to the sale of liquors, so that the citizens of each and every county in the State may determine for themselves whether spirituous, vinous or malt liquors may be sold therein. These are the exact words of the State Democratic platform.

I came to this conclusion some time ago when the question of the extension of the county unit law became prominent, and I regard it as the best plan to settle an important question.

If Judge O'Rear had read on the day of the State Democratic convention the published account of the views of the State Democratic candidates for office, he would have known that I and all the other candidates for State offices were in favor of extending the county unit law.

Judge O'Rear says he proposes, if elected Governor, to remove the influence of the liquor lobby in the Kentucky Legislature, and its allied lobbies, and asks me what I propose to do about it? My answer is as stated in the Democratic platform, and is as follows:

"I favor such laws as will under appropriate penalties destroy all corrupt lobbying seeking to influence any legislative body in the commonwealth on the subject of legislation, or the election of officers by it, or in any other matters," and I will do all in my power, if I am Governor, to carry out fully the statements in this section of the Democratic platform, and if the county unit is not enacted in the first session of the Legislature, if I am Governor I will determine then whether the Legislature shall be called into extra session to consider it.

Judge O'Rear asserts in very strong language what he will do with the Legislature if the members do not obey his dictation, and it is proper in this connection to say that each branch of the Legislature is certain to be Democratic, and will be more in sympathy with a Democratic Governor than with a Republican Governor.

Before I finish my speech I will ask Judge O'Rear to answer some important questions, but they will be more appropriate when I discuss another question.

Republicans Have Seized Some of the Most Important Principles of Both State and National Democratic Platforms.

Republicans after years of opposition to Democratic policies and principles have in the last few years seized some of the most important principles and policies advocated by Democrats in Kentucky, and some of the most important principles in National Democratic platforms.

Many of the declarations in the Republican State platform are in favor of principles which Democrats have advocated for years, notable among them being improvement of our educational system, revision of our tax system, better roads, divorcement of penal and charitable institutions from politics, thorough inspection of State banks, arbitration of labor disputes, prohibition of peonage and slave traffic, and it may be said in this connection that the first local option law was passed by a Democratic Legislature in 1874 and approved by a Democratic Governor.

Republicans have also eagerly seized planks in Democratic National platforms. This was notably the case when Republicans declared for Government regulation of railroad rates, for this was written in three National Democratic platforms, beginning with the platform of 1896.

The election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people has been advocated by Democrats for a quarter of a century. Reciprocity in trade was advocated by the founder of the Democratic party, Thomas Jefferson, nearly a century ago, and was endorsed by several Democratic National conventions, and was advocated by the present Republican President, who called a special session of Congress in order to secure the passage of the Canadian reciprocity measure.

Publication of campaign contributions before the election has been advocated by Democrats for a number of years, and was supported both by Democrats and Republicans at the late session of Congress and passed. The great and conspicuous difference between Democrats and Republicans as regards the pledges or declarations made in their platforms is that Democrats are faithful to their pledges and carry them out, while Republicans have been conspicuous for their broken pledges and disregard of platform promises, both State and National.

Republicans Will Be Powerless If They Had the Governor, as Both Branches of the General Assembly Are Certain To Be Democratic.

It may be said in this connection that Democrats are certain to have control of both the State Senate and House of Representatives when the next General Assembly convenes, and will be in a condition to perform and carry out their pledges, while the Republicans have no prospect whatever of controlling either branch of the next General Assembly, and if they had, the Governor they would be powerless to enact or amend a law; one-half of the State Senators hold over, and they are all Democrats, and the majority of Democrats in the House of Representatives last session is too large to be overcome.

The Republican Party.

Kentucky Republicans are now saying very complacently we should in this campaign confine ourselves to State questions. Of course, they desire this, for they do not want the bad record of the Republican party, both in the State and Nation, brought to the attention of the people.

As Kentucky is a part of the United States important questions which affect the Nation will also affect Kentucky. Legislation for the masses and for the masses, laws enacted by a Republican Congress or vetoed by a Republican President, which involves economy in public expenses, cheaper clothing, cheaper food, cheaper farming implements or machinery, reduction of the burdens of taxation, are of grave interest and importance to the people of Kentucky, and it is proper and right that the record of the two great political parties should be presented exactly as they have made them.

Democrats know that Kentucky Republicans voted for President Taft and endorsed his administration, and also the last National Republican platform, and that Kentucky Republicans voted for Governor Willson and endorsed his administration. Kentucky Republicans have endorsed and upheld the highest protective tariff law in the world, a tariff law which has been an incubus with its burdensome taxation upon the farmer, the laboring man, the business man and all the people of Kentucky.

Kentucky Republicans have endorsed legislation which has made more millionaires in the United States than in all the nations of Europe put together, but the millionaires have been confined to the special classes benefited by the tariff, and not to the people of Kentucky.

They have acted with the political party which has legislated for the classes, and not for the masses, and which has by its legislation brought into our country trusts and combines and monopolies, which have been like a Pandora box of evils to injure the prosperity of the people, consume their hard earnings and increase the expenses of living.

Democratic National Achievements.
Democrats made great achievements at the last November election. Then Northern and Western States, which had been strong Republican States, elected Democratic Governors and increased their Democratic representation in the United States Senate and United States House of Representatives.

The result of the last November election marks a new era in our country, and should strengthen the faith of all citizens in the virtue, intelligence and patriotism of the people, and in the success of free institutions under popular government.

It was a great protest of the people against the conduct of Republicans, and it was a vote of censure upon the President and Republican Congress, and a prelude, I hope and believe, to the overthrow of the Republican oligarchy which has become intoxicated with power, tyrannical in legislation and despotic in the management of Government affairs.

Democrats in the called session of Congress which has just adjourned did their duty nobly and faithfully. They have been true to the pledges made in our National platform, and they made a record which not only surprised their friends and discouraged their enemies, but gave hope and encouragement to Democrats everywhere.

They passed the Canadian reciprocity measure, which President Taft could not get the Republican Congress to pass.

They passed resolutions providing for an amendment to the Constitution to authorize the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people, but a Republican amendment prevented the final adoption of the resolutions.

They passed a bill providing for the publication of campaign contributions before the election.

They passed the farmers' and laborers' free list bill.

They passed bills materially reducing the tariff duties on wool and woolen goods of all classes, and they passed the cotton bill, and admitted Arizona and New Mexico to Statehood.

President Vetoes Most Important Bills.

The Republican President, William H. Taft, vetoed the three most important bills passed by Democrats in the House of Representatives, and passed by Democrats and Insurgent Republicans in the Senate, and these bills gave the greatest relief to the people.

He vetoed the bill reducing existing taxes on wool and on woolen goods, which saved the people of the United States two hundred millions of dollars per annum, and he vetoed the bill reducing existing tariff taxes on cotton goods, which saved fifty millions per annum to the people; and he vetoed the farmers' and laborers' free list bill, which saved one hundred millions of dollars to the farmers and laborers, his remarkable and unsatisfactory excuse being that tariff revision should wait until reports are made on the different tariff schedules by a tariff board composed of men who have no more capacity and no better information on the tariff than the members of the Ways and Means Committee, which reported the bills to which I have referred.

President Taft is the first President in all the history of our Republic who vetoed bills to cheapen the clothing of the poor people, cheaper bread and meat for the hungry, cheaper machinery and tools for the farmer and laboring men, and yet my distinguished opponent, Judge O'Rear, voted for Taft and endorsed his platform in 1908, and at the late Republican convention of Kentucky, held July 11, he wrote and voted for a resolution in the Republican platform which endorsed William H. Taft for renomination for President in 1912. The King of England has not in centuries exercised such a right as Taft has exercised, and, in my opinion, if the King of England were to veto such bills as Taft vetoed it would cost his crown, and indignantly determined people all over our country will see to it that Taft will lose his crown or office at the November election in 1912, and all those who support and uphold him in the matters to which I referred should lose their chance for office, also.

Asks Judge O'Rear Questions.

Judge O'Rear wrote the resolutions adopted at the Republican state convention, which endorsed the administration of President Taft and which recommended President Taft for renomination as the Republican candidate for President in 1912.

Five connection I wish to ask the Republican candidate for Governor, Judge O'Rear, questions which are very interesting to all the people of Kentucky and which involve cheaper clothing, cheaper goods, cheaper farming machinery and implements, cheaper mechanics' tools and also justice under the law.

Do you endorse President Taft's veto of the bill known as the farmers' free list bill?

Do you endorse President Taft's veto of the bill reducing the existing tariff taxes on wool and woolen goods?

Do you endorse President Taft's veto of the bill reducing the existing taxes on cotton goods?

Do you endorse the votes against the farmers' free list bill which were cast by Senator Bradley and Representative Powers and your campaign chairman, Representative Langley?

Do you endorse the Ryan-Aldrich tariff bill which President Taft signed and which he said was the best Republican tariff law ever passed?

Do you endorse the pardon by Governor Willson of Taylor, Finley, Howard and Powers?

You have been silent on these great questions, some of which involve the reduction of the price of clothing, food, farming machinery and mechanics' tools to the amount of hundreds of millions of dollars. These questions are of grave and vital importance to the people of Kentucky, and the people of Kentucky want to know where you stand. Come out candidly and say where you are.

Judge O'Rear Inconsistent.

Judge O'Rear appears to be inconsistent. He claims to be a progressive, yet he is for Taft for re-election as President, and Taft is a standpatter, and O'Rear commended in his platform Senator Bradley and Representatives Langley and Powers, who are standpatters, and he has Langley as his campaign manager, and Bradley and Langley and Powers voted against the farmers' and laborers' free list bill, and the bills reducing tariff duties on wool and woolen goods and on cotton.

Democratic Tariff Vs. Republican Tariff.

President Taft started the tariff campaign a few days ago at Hamilton, Mass., when on the 20th of August he made a speech and severely criticized Speaker Clark and Representative Underwood and Senator LaFollette and other Senators and Representatives for passing the bills he vetoed, and he accused them of ignorance of the effect of the legislation, and he reached his climax when he said: "Men of Massachusetts, it seems to me that the slogan of the Republican party should involve a National cry and not be confined to mere State issues. Democrats everywhere are ready to accept this challenge, and we believe our cause of justice, right and fair taxation, will be victorious."

Both of the great political parties in Congress now face the realization that the defeat by the President of so much needed, just and important tariff legislation at the special session of Congress makes certain a tariff battle at the regular session beginning on the first Monday in December, next, which will exceed in fierceness any tariff battle which ever occurred, and that the tariff will go into the Presidential election next year with force and fierceness never equaled before. In all the Presidential contests where the tariff has been the great issue, Democrats have always been victorious, and I hope and believe history will repeat itself in 1912. The arguments are convincing and unanswerable, in support of the Democratic position for tariff reduction so as to get tariff for revenue only as soon as possible.

The Robert Walker tariff bill, enacted in 1846, is said to have been the best tariff bill ever passed by the Congress of the United States, and its average rate was less than half the average rate of the existing tariff law. It remained on the statute books unchanged until 1857, a period of eleven years. James G. Blaine, in his book, "Twenty Years of Congress," stated that the eleven years of the Walker tariff were the most prosperous in the life of the Republic, and that the people were so satisfied with it that in 1856, after it had been in operation ten years, neither of the great political parties which presented Presidential candidates referred to the tariff in its platform.

The Morrill tariff bill was passed in 1865, after the Civil War commenced, and the Republican party has since that time in every National platform promised a revision of the tariff. The revisions have always been upward instead of downward, until we now live under the highest tariff schedule ever known in the world.

Republicans promised in the last National contest for President to revise the tariff downward in the interest of the consumers. They revised it upward in the interest of monopolies and manufacturers, but in doing this they made plainer and clearer to the people than ever before that the true Democratic doctrine as to the tariff is that the Government has no right in equity or in law to collect a dollar of taxation except for its own support, and that Republican doctrine is that taxes may be levied for the benefit and protection of favored individuals and preferred classes, which is legalized robbery.

Look for a moment at a few of the inequalities of the existing tariff rates. On clothing worn by the laboring man it levies a duty of 86 per cent. On champagne the duty is 65 per cent. On woolen or worsted goods worn by millions of women it is 135 per cent, and on the fine silk costume of the rich the tax is 50 per cent. On the plain, coarse blanket of the poor the tariff is 165 per cent, while on the finest and costliest blanket it is 71 per cent. On carpets used by the owners of fine mansions the tariff is 50 per cent, while on the cheap carpets used in the modest homes of the working man it is 127 per cent.

The existing tariff law contains 2,024 articles, and the report of the Department of Commerce shows that the total production in the United States of goods protected by the tariff last year was thirteen billions of dollars and there was transported into the

He Begins His Campaign at Bowling Green in a Strong Address That Is Received With Great Enthusiasm.

One of the Largest Crowds That Ever Attended a Political Meeting in the State Greeted the Ex-Governor.

He Proclaims Himself in Favor of the Extension of the County Unit Law, and Leaves No Doubt of His Position.

A HEARTY, SINCERE, RINGING DOCUMENT

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Sept. 4.—Governor James B. McCreary, Democratic nominee for Governor, opened his campaign in this city today. The largest crowd that ever attended a political meeting here was present. Democratic voters poured in from the surrounding counties to give their personal approval to their party leader and to indorse the platform upon which he is asking the votes of the people. The enthusiasm with which Governor McCreary was received gives evidence of an aroused party spirit, which augurs well for Democratic success.

His speech was a complete review of the political situation in Kentucky and the nation. It leaves no live subject untouched. It calls the Republican party to account for its failures to live up to its platform pledges.

Governor McCreary delivered a masterful speech. He heartily indorsed every plank in the Democratic platform, and left no doubt in the minds of his hearers where he stands on every public question.

His speech in full is as follows:

Fellow Citizens: I have the honor of addressing you today as the regularly nominated candidate of the Democratic party for the office of Governor.

No words I can utter seem strong enough to express my gratitude for the nomination given to me by the Democrats of Kentucky.

I can only say I am sincerely and earnestly thankful for the great honor conferred upon me, and I shall try with whatever energy or intellect I possess to carry the Democratic flag to victory, and if I am elected Governor of Kentucky I will have no personal schemes to advance, no individual aspirations to promote, but I shall do all in my power to discharge every duty required of me faithfully and efficiently, and try in every proper way to uplift Kentucky, promote progress, improvement and advancement, preserve law and order and uphold all that will bring prosperity to the State and happiness to the people.

It will always be a source of pleasure to me that Madison County, where I have resided all my life and where I am thoroughly known, indorsed me for the office of Governor, with only 24 votes against me in the primary election and 2,400 votes for me, in a very busy season, being not far from the full Democratic vote of the county, and in the Eleventh Congressional district, which I represented in Congress for twelve years, I was indorsed by a majority in the primary election of over 6,000 votes.

At the outset I wish to say with emphasis, if I am elected Governor I will not be controlled by a clique, machine or individual, but I shall be as I was before when I had the honor to be Chief Executive—the Governor of the State according to the Constitution and the law.

Duty of Democrats.

There was never a time in our State when Democrats should be more alert and aggressive, more harmonious and united, than the present time. Kentucky Democrats are to fight the opening political battle this year, which will precede the great National battle for President next year. Kentucky Democrats will help start the movement which I believe will result in the election of a Democratic President in 1912.

While Democrats in other States are carrying the Democratic flag full high advanced to victory and increased majorities, Democrats in Kentucky must not falter or hesitate, but rather be energetic, enthusiastic, invincible, victorious.

The State of Kentucky.

The first and foremost subject to enlist attention of all is the State of Kentucky. There is everywhere in our State a greater desire for progress, improvement and advancement than ever before. The location, the climate, the resources, the splendid men and the attractive women show that we have everything to make Kentucky one of the greatest States in the Union, if proper efforts are made.

I was born and reared in Kentucky, and I have always loved my native State, and it is but natural for me to wish to see her outstrip all of her sister States in every material interest and every desirable form of progress. Kentucky occupies a central place in the great Mississippi Valley, and no part of the world shows greater progress and activity than that vast region stretching from the Alleghenies westward to the Rocky Mountains, and southward to the Gulf of Mexico, containing an area of a million and a quarter square miles, and having a population of thirty millions, and possessing natural advantages unexcelled by any section of the globe.

While her sister States are developing and utilizing every advantage, Kentucky must go forward also. We are in an age of progress and development, and the pulse and pace of the world have been greatly quickened. Our State must keep step to the music of the age, and we must have united, aggressive efforts for industrial and commercial supremacy, and Kentucky must forge to the front as one of the leading States of the Union in farming, in manufactures, in mining, in education, and in all the varied interests of a great people inhabiting a great State.

Few States, if any, in our Republic have such geological formations, such diversity of soils and mines, and such varied attractions as Kentucky.

Great Agricultural and Mining State. The soil of Kentucky is very rich for agricultural purposes. Nowhere can be found better producing tobacco land, better producing hemp land, better producing corn, wheat, rye, oats and barley lands.

Our State produces nearly one-third of the tobacco grown in the United States and 50 per cent of the hemp of the United States is produced in Kentucky.

With an area of 41,282 square miles only about 1,500 square miles are unfit for agriculture. Our coal fields are unexcelled in any State, there being 15,880 square miles of coal-bearing area, with coking coal in seven counties of the western coal fields and ten counties in the eastern coal fields, and cannel coal in abundance.

Her timber districts are immense, comprising vast forests of merchantable timber of every variety, and iron ore, lead, zinc, building stone and pottery clay abound in almost inexhaustible quantities, while rich, paying oil wells have been opened in various sections of the State.

Kentucky has over 2,000 miles of rivers, including the Ohio and Mississippi rivers where they bound its borders, and over 3,000 miles of railroads are ready and convenient for travel and transportation, and her live stock is not excelled in any part of the world.

Will Be Great Manufacturing State. Kentucky is not only a great agricultural and mining State, but her manufactures are extensive and increasing rapidly, and being situated midway between the Northern Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico, and between the Eastern and Western ranges of the North American Mountains, is destined on account of location and facilities to become after a while a great manufacturing State.

When Solon, the great Athenian law-giver, was full of years and full of honors he said: "I have done all in my power to improve my country and to defend its laws." If Kentucky will emulate his example we will have a great era of development in our commonwealth.

I will always be ready, whether in office or not in office, to do all in my power to improve and develop Kentucky.

The Achievements of Democrats in Kentucky.

The Democratic party is the Party of Progress, the Party of Peace and Law and Order, the Party of Liberty and Equal Rights, the Party that has given to Kentucky its educational advantages, its development and its advancement, and therefore, if Kentucky improves, Democracy must be triumphant in our State.

I point you to the contrast between Republican rule and Democratic rule in Kentucky.

As against the Republican record of assassination, bloodshed and disregard of law I present the Democratic record for peace, strict regard for human life, and respect for and maintenance of law and order. As against a treasury with only $138,852.63 and unpaid warrants against the State amounting in July last to $1,350,002, bearing 5 per cent interest, I present the Democratic record of a magnificent State Capitol, erected and paid for without any extra tax, and every just claim against the State promptly paid in full.

As against Republican platform pledges and promises that have been broken, Democrats present a record showing all pledges and promises faithfully complied with. I call attention to the record which shows that the State debt was about one million dollars before the Democrats came into power in 1900 and was wiped out by Democrats who left a balance in the treasury of a million dollars, and since Republican Governor Wilson was inaugurated the State is in debt more than a million dollars. A Democratic Legislature established two State Normal Schools for the training of the teachers of the State, and made appropriations for their maintenance and established the State University, and also appropriated money for its benefit. The common school law of Kentucky was enacted by a Democratic Legislature, and all the improvements and increased facilities for education came through Democratic legislation. A Democratic Legislature reestablished the Geological Survey, provided for a Confederate Home, with proper appropriations for the support of Confederate veterans, and enacted a law for the benefit of the Children's Home Society and made it a State institution, and enlarged the Agricultural Department so as to include forestry and immigration, and established a Normal School at Frankfort, Ky., for colored people, and made liberal appropriations for its maintenance.

Republicans Can Refer to No Beneficial Legislation, and Their Record Does Not Deserve Indorsement. Republicans can refer to no legislation originated or enacted by them in Kentucky which has increased educational facilities, added to internal improvements, adjusted or lightened burdens of taxation or benefited Kentucky in any way.

The record shows, however, a remarkable military history, in which the expenditures for active militia in three and a half years under Governor Wilson amounted to $27,158.87, or an average expenditure per year of $7,042.28, as against $29,359.16, or an average expenditure per year of $7,339.79 for the four last years of Governor Beckham's administration.

Thus it will be seen that the Republican expenses are nearly ten times as much for active militia in three years and a half as Democrats expended in four years.

Since so much has been said in the newspapers about expenditures for active militia, I have been asked to state the expenditures for active militia the four years I was Governor, and I have obtained the statement from the Auditor's office, showing that for the four years I was Governor there was expended for the active militia $20,401.68, or $5,100.42 per annum, being one fifteenth as much per annum as under the present Republican administration.

I have been asked also to state how many days I was absent from the State during my four years' service as Governor. The record shows I was absent from the State during my entire term thirty-four days, and the State paid to the Lieutenant Governor for that period $402, while the present Republican Governor has been absent from the State 239 days, and Lieutenant Governor Cox has drawn for this time $4,256.20 for acting as Governor, the per diem being $17.80, and Governor Wilson drawing the same amount for the same 239 days.

The record also shows that the thirteenth section of the last Republican platform adopted in 1907 promised that if put in power Republicans would "reduce the taxes to the lowest possible rate consistent with an efficient administration of the State government."

More than three years and a half of the Republican administration has passed and we have not heard anything more about the proposed reduction in taxes. The people, however, have felt a movement of the opposite character. There has been no direct increase in the tax rate, but it was necessary to raise money to pay the increased expenses inaugurated by Republicans, and they have resorted to an indirect method of raising the rate. The Republican State Board of Equalization increased the valuation of property as turned in from the counties. Take the years 1910 and 1911 as examples. In several counties this rate has been as great as 25 per cent, and in other counties 20 per cent, and 15 per cent and 12 per cent. In 1910 ninety-three counties were raised, the average raise being about 12 per cent. In 1911 seventy-two counties have been raised, the average raise being a little more than 9 per cent. Thus it will be seen that while the State tax rate was not actually increased, the result was the same in these counties as if it had been raised an average of 12 per cent in 1910 and an average of 9 per cent in 1911. This was equivalent to raising the State tax rate on these counties from 50 cents on the $100 to 56 cents in 1910 and 54½ cents in 1911.

The Legislature, with the approval of the Governor, has the power to increase the tax rate, but the Republican Board of Equalization usurped the functions of the Legislature and in effect raised the tax rate.

Take Warren County as an example. In 1910 the Republican State Board of Equalization raised Warren County 15 per cent on lands, town lots and personalty. This made a raise of $701,932 in lands, $180,650 in town lots and $212,440 in personalty, making a total raise for that year on Warren County property of $1,184,202.

For this year 1911 Warren County was raised 10 per cent on lands, town lots and personalty, making a raise on lands of $555,106, on town lots $333,268, and on personalty of $157,694, or a total raise on the property of the county of $1,045,068, thus making a total raise for the two years of $2,229,270 on the property of the county.

As the State tax rate is 50 cents on the $100 it will be seen that this raise on Warren County for the two years has added over $12,000 in taxes paid to the State alone. As this raise also affects county, city and district taxes, doubtless the raise caused an increase for all these local purposes of more than twice $12,000, as local rates are probably more than a dollar on the $100, as against 50 cents for the State rate.

So it can be stated that for all purposes the citizens of Warren County have had to pay, in the two years, because of these raises, about $36,000 additional taxes.

As long as Kentucky is a sovereign State the people will hold leading Republicans responsible for the record they have made in Kentucky when they brought soldiers to the Capitol of the State and made bayonets superior to law and soldiers superior to legislators; when they caused Judges of the Court of Appeals and State Legislators to pass under bayonets on the way to their respective official duties.

When soldiers and eating guns and cannons were placed on the Capitol grounds, when the duly-elected Governor was cowardly assassinated and Republicans made no protest, and made no effort to have the assassins brought to justice and tried and convicted, a Republican Governor pardoned them.

There is nothing clearer in our State than that Republicans have no right, because of anything they have done to govern Kentucky. "They have been weighed in the balance and found wanting."

Republicans Are Endeavoring to Divert Attention of Voters From Their Record.

One of the principal issues in this campaign is shall the Republican party, with its record in Kentucky and in the United States be given a new lease of power by the election of Republican candidates to the highest State offices, and thus put upon them the seal of approval by the people, and tell them to renew and revive the outrages and extravagance and burdensome taxation which they have upheld and advocated?

Republicans are endeavoring to divert attention of voters from the unparallelled record they have made, both in the State and the Nation, by injecting immaterial, irrelevant or unsupported issues hoping to draw the people away from main questions and have the campaign pitched on side questions. I believe the people have the requisite virtue and intelligence to rid the politics of the State of demoralizing and improper influences, and Democrats will see that Republicans are held responsible for their acts both in State and in National affairs.

Clean Politics and No Bosses or Machines.

I have always been in favor of clean politics, and opposed to bosses, machines or rings.

When I had the honor to be Governor before, no Republican or any other man ever charged that there were bosses, rings or machines at that time.

Judge O'Rear, in his speech at Elizabethtown, tried to appear as the apostle of good government and pure elections, and he spoke at length about political machines and boss rule in Kentucky.

These are strange utterances by a Republican who has voted so often to indorse National Republican rule, which has been conspicuous for the support of boss-ridden and machine-ridden Republican States.

When a Republican speaks in favor of clean politics and against machines after the record made by the Republican party in Kentucky, Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania, California and in Southern States, it must be regarded as one of the wonders of the present time. For years New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Ohio were under boss rule and machine control until a majority of the voters determined to overthrow bosses and machines, and Democrats and Republicans rose in their majesty and power and overthrew Republican rule and placed Democrats in control of the States I have named.

I know there is no boss rule or machine rule in Kentucky at the present time unless it is in the Republican party. There are some Republicans who believe there was a Republican machine when the last State Republican convention was held at Louisville, and the steam roller was run over a worthy ex-Federal soldier and other prominent candidates in order to carry out the "plan and specifications" determined upon by the bosses of the Republican party.

State-Wide Primary Elections—The Remedy.

Judge O'Rear said in his Elizabethtown speech: "State-wide primary election is the remedy for bossism and machine rule, etc."

I have always been an advocate of primary elections.

About eight months ago twenty-six Democratic candidates for the State offices met in Louisville by invitation of the Democratic State Executive Committee to consult as to whether the State Democratic candidates should be nominated by a State convention or by a State primary election, and I used arguments now presented by Judge O'Rear in favor of the primary election. I said in addressing the Democratic State Executive Committee: "If we wish the Democrat voters to take an interest in the candidates, and in the election, we must have methods for the nomination of the party candidates which will insure general participation in the election, and I believe a primary election according to the statutes of Kentucky is the best plan to select the nominees for the various offices.

The statutes of Kentucky prescribe the rules and regulations for nominating in primary elections candidates for State, district, county or municipal offices. There is no statute regulating State conventions or county conventions.

Success is always greatly promoted if we have equal rights for all and special privileges for none, and on portmanteaus given to all Democrats to assist in nominating the candidates they will support at the general election are encouraging to the voters. The humblest Democrat has as much right to participate in the nomination of Democratic State officers as the most prominent and influential Democrat, and the farmer in the country should have equal chances with the Democrat in a town or city. Comparative few persons attend courthouse conventions, and often 100 persons, or a less number, in a courthouse convention choose delegates or instruct for candidates, while several thousands of Democratic voters of the county are absent at their homes.

Advantage of Primary.

The government should be brought close to the people and there can be no bosses or rings or machines in connection with a primary legally and honestly held, and all who know me know I would not accept a nomination unless it came to me honestly and fairly. Experience has taught the people to appreciate primary elections. In every Democratic county in Kentucky primary elections are held to nominate the county officers and every State south of Kentucky holds primary elections to nominate county and State officers and many of the Northern and Western States nominate their county and State officers in primary elections.

A few months ago there was a conference of Governors and Governors elect at Frankfort and Louisville and in a discussion on primary elections all except one favored primary elections, and thirty-seven were present.

The State Democratic Executive Committee ordered a primary election to be held on the first day of July, 1911, in every precinct of the State under the primary election law of the State of Kentucky, to nominate candidates for the State offices and a United States Senator.

I was nominated as were all the other Democratic candidates for State offices, at the primary election held July 1, 1911, according to the plan suggested by Judge O'Rear as a remedy for machine rule, except that the State did not pay the expenses, but the Democratic platform recently adopted at the State Democratic convention contains a resolution declaring in favor of a direct primary election law at the public expense.

How Were Judge O'Rear and His Ticket Nominated?

Judge O'Rear and his associates on the Republican ticket were nominated by a convention held in Louisville, Ky. He wrote the platform, and he says the provisions of the platform were in the main set forth in the announcement of his candidacy three months before the convention was held. According to the statements of Republicans he named the candidates to be nominated for the various State offices, and he also named the chairman of the State convention. About 2,000 Republicans voted in the Republican convention which nominated Judge O'Rear. Over 100,000 Democrats voted in the primary election in which I and other Democratic candidates for the State offices were nominated.

Very little perception is required to see that Judge O'Rear's nomination and the nomination of the other candidates on the Republican ticket looked far more like boss rule and machine rule than my nomination and the nomination of my associates on the Democratic ticket by a primary election.

If ever there was in any State a fair primary election wherein the people, uncontrolled and uninfluenced, assembled at their respective voting places and nominated candidates of their choice, it was at the Democratic State primary election held on the last day of July last.

Turbulent Times and Disgraceful Scenes.

We all remember the turbulent times and disgraceful scenes that marked Kentucky's history about ten years ago, when a motley crowd of Republicans marched to our State Capitol, and cannon were placed in the Capitol grounds and legislators were driven to the city of Louisville for safety and protection. Where was Judge O'Rear then and why did he not raise his voice then as now for clean politics and law and order? Why did he not refer to these times in his platform, adopted by the Republican convention, as did Democrats in their platform, adopted by the Democratic convention?

While I am speaking of the late Republican State convention I must refer to conspicuous events in that convention, which have attracted wide attention.

That convention approved and indorsed the Republican administration of the affairs of the State and all means employed by that administration for the preservation of law and order, and although Judge O'Rear is said to have criticized Governor Wilson's military exploits, he was quick to get on the platform which indorsed the very thing which he was the first to criticize and denounce.

A conspicuous omission of the convention which nominated my distinguished opponent and other members of the Republican ticket was that the delegates did not deign to mention in the convention or in the platform the name of the present Republican Governor of Kentucky.

The most dramatic event in that Republican State Convention was Judge O'Rear's undertaking to enliven Senator Bradley by declaring while he was making a speech: "I am proud to say of Senator Bradley that despite the machinations of the lobby, there is one Senator on whose title there is no stain, and on whose record there is no blot." Why was it necessary to say anything on that subject? It was to me that if the hour of eulogy had arrived it would have been more appropriate for Bradley to have eulogized O'Rear, as he had just been nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor.

Mansfield Center, Conn., Sept. 2.—A bolt of lightning threw itself into the hip pocket of Joseph Barrow, a farmer, as he was sitting in the kitchen of his home here last night. The bolt came into the house via the stovepipe, and was attracted to Barrow's hip pocket by the presence there of an iron monkey wrench and a big jackknife. It passed down his leg, burning him severely, and then careened over the floor, upsetting a tub of water and splitting a huge chopping block. In Barrow's pocket the end of the wrench and the blade of the knife were fused into a piece of steel.

Gives $15,000 For A Nickel Ride

Chicago, Aug. 30.—An 1853 half dollar, recently taken in payment of fare by a conductor of a Chicago street car, is said by experts in rare coins attending the annual convention of the American Numismatic association to be the most valuable coin in the collection now on exhibition here.

The conductor turned the valuable half dollar in at the barn.

The receiver sold it. Charles Wilcox of Chicago then purchased the coin for $100 and later sold it to DeWitt Smith of Lee, Mass., for $500. Smith later refused to sell it for $2,500. It is now in the collection of H. O. Granberg, a wealthy mine owner of Oshkosh, Wis., who refuses to state what he paid for it.

The half dollar lacks the arrows and sun's rays which appear on all other coins of the same mintage and is believed to be the only coin of its kind in existence. It is said to be valued by the owner at $15,000.

Yemassee, S. C., Aug. 30.—William Elliott, special agent of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, just arrived here from Beaufort, reports no loss of life at either Beaufort or Port Royal. The wind attained a velocity of 85 to 90 miles an hour at both places. Property damage is heavy.

A 90-mile wind, accompanied by rain, did great damage to crops in the neighborhood of Port Royal and Beaufort, but no loss of life was reported by persons who arrived here today from that neighborhood.

The storm put the Port Royal water works out of commission, and it is feared the residents will suffer for lack of drinking water.

The railroad bridge across Whale branch was washed away and at another point near Beaufort 150 feet of track were washed out.

Aviation Makes Great Progress.

Paris, Aug. 29.—Exactly two years ago today, at the first Rheims aviation meet, Hubert Latham attained the remarkable height of 504 feet, and all the world marveled at the feat. Since that day, August 29, 1909, such progress has been made in the science of flying that this month Capt. Felix rose more than twenty times as high and the matter was dismissed by the newspapers with only a few lines. Beachy soared over 11,000 feet at Chicago recently. The progress made by the aviators in attaining great height is told in the following record:

Aug. 29, 1909—Latham, 504 ft.
Oct. 18, 1909—Count de Lambert, 975 feet.
Dec. 1, 1909—Latham, 1,472 ft.
July 7, 1910—Latham, 4,498 ft.
July 7, 1910—Latham, 4,250 ft.
Sept. 3, 1910—Morane, 8,391 feet.
Sept. 1, 1910—Chevez, 8,408 feet.
Oct. 1, 1910—Wijumalen, 9,035 feet.
Dec. 9, 1910—Legagneux, 10,075 feet.
July 8, 1911—Loridan, 10,335 feet.
Aug. 5, 1911—Felix, 10,887 ft.
Aug. 20, 1911—Beachy, 11,578 feet.

Altitude Record Broken.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Oscar A. Brindley made the altitude record of the world when he reached a height of 11,726 feet.

The former record was 10,761 feet, made by Mourmelon, of France, on July 8, 1911, though Captain Felix claims to have ascended 11,152 feet at Etampes on the fifth instant. James Ward and Earl Ovington had mishaps while in the air but descended safely, the latter in five feet of water.

FORGETFUL

Wishes to Recover His Name.

Danville, Ind., Aug. 31.—A man that speaks French, German and English, but has lost his name and the name of his home city, today announced through the county authorities that he offered a reward of $100 for his identification.

After the man came to this city a few days ago his memory lapsed.

"I am a house painter," said he at the sheriff's office today, "and in some city I have $1,000 in the bank. I will give $100 to anyone that will help me to identify myself."

LIFELESS BODY SUSPENDED IN AIR

LINEMAN KING ELECTROCUTED ON POLE AND HUNDREDS VIEW THE GREWSOME SIGHT

For nearly an hour yesterday afternoon, between the hours of two and three o'clock, the lifeless body of Winfred King, a lineman for the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company, who was electrocuted while stringing wires for his company at West Sixth avenue and Elm street, was suspended in midair, at the top of a telephone pole, until members of the Fire Department were called and lifted the body to earth.

It was a gruesome sight and hundreds of Pine Bluffians stood by unable to render any aid to the man, whose life they thought was gradually carried out, although it was evident after the body was viewed by physicians that death was instant. Drs. O. G. Blackwell, W. S. Stewart and J. L. Magee worked with the body for some time in effort to revive any life that might remain within it, but they finally gave up hopes and the body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Ralph Robinson. It was shipped early this morning to his old home at Blackford, Ky., for interment. His aged father, G. H. King, will receive the body at that place Sunday morning.

King was a roommate of Floyd Gardner, the young Southwestern employee and lineman who was electrocuted two weeks ago at a point within a few blocks of the horrible scene of yesterday and the electrocution of the two men was practically within the same hour of the afternoon. King at his boarding house Thursday evening, occupied the same chair at the table that was occupied by Young Gardner the evening before he met his death. They lived at 419 East Sixth avenue, with J. T. King, an uncle of the deceased.

King's safety belt was around the pole upon which he was working. He was preparing to string a new drop wire from the pole to a nearby residence, to replace a fallen one. He had been asked by Foreman Harry Harvey if he was ready and replied that he was. At about the same time the reply came King screamed and was seen to fall back from the pole. His belt caught in a bracket which held him in midair.

The telephone wire, which King was handling, in some manner came in contact with a live wire of the Citizens Light and Transit Company in an alley one block from the scene of the accident. It was charged with 2300 volts and these passed through King's body killing him instantly. Fire ladders had to be used to remove the body from its position.

City Inspector Jack Troxel stated yesterday that he inspected the wires and found that a telephone wire had fallen upon a wire of the Transit Company sending the current into the telephone wire. This is, in his opinion what caused the accident.

King went to work on the local lines yesterday at noon, having requested the management here to give him employment in the city. He had been at work about an hour when he met his death.

He was formerly employed on the long distance lines in this section of the state and worked for the company nearly a year.

The deceased was 25 years old and was unmarried. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Blackford, Ky. He was exceedingly popular with all of his acquaintances.—Pine Bluff, Ark., Exchange.

DRURY—KEMP

John Drury, son of George T. Drury, who keeps the county farm, and Miss Dedie Kemp, the attractive young daughter of R. H. Kemp, the farmer and capitalist were married Wednesday night at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kemp near the city, by Rev. Martin Miller. The youth of the bride was the only cause for objection but the ardent suitor overcame this and won the parents consent to give up their daughter whose heart they knew had not been her own for several moons. They will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Kemp for the present and the groom will engage in farming on a place of their own next year.

HERE AT HOME

Marion Citizens Gladly Testify and Freely Recommend Drury's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Drury's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Marion citizen:

Thomas L. Hillyard, Railroad St., Marion, Ky., says: "Drury's Kidney Pills came to my relief after I had suffered a great deal from kidney trouble and had spent much money for medicine without receiving any benefit. Two years ago I was taken with an attack of typhoid fever and upon recovering, found that my kidneys were badly disordered. The pains in my back were so severe that frequently I had to leave my work and lie down for several hours. There was a constant desire to pass the kidney secretions and I was obliged to arise several times during the night. The kidney secretions were also highly colored and the passages were attended with pain. I became dizzy and dark spots floated before my eyes. A relative, hearing of my condition, advised me to give Drury's Kidney Pills a trial and I procured a supply at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store. They cured me in less than two months. For over two years I have had no return attack of my old complaint and am bound to look upon my cure as a permanent one."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Drury's and take no other. A 31 87-14

DR. BELL'S ANTI-PAIN For Internal and External Pains.

Considerable interest was aroused in local social circles when news reached here of the marriage of Miss Rebecca Williams, of near this city, to Mr. H. K. Ferguson, of Nashville, Tenn. The marriage was solemnized in Marion Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Sam Gugenheim, a sister of the bride, and was a very quiet affair. After the ceremony the happy couple left for their future home at Nashville.

The bride is the beautiful and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Williams and is popular with a large circle of acquaintances.

The groom is a splendid young man and is well and favorably known in this city, where he formerly lived. For a year or more he has held a responsible position in the Ad. setting department of the Nashville American. Karl learned the printing trade in this office and the Enterprise force joins their many friends in hearty good wishes. Providence Enterprise.

Supplement to Crittenden Record-Press of Sept. 7, 1911.

United States last year goods valued at $779,000,000, on which a tariff tax of $329,000,000 was collected by the United States Government, but the unparalleled outrage is that the producers in the United States of the thirteen billion dollars' worth of goods were enabled because of the protective tariff to increase the price of their goods so that they made ninety-two millions of consumers pay them a tribute of about four billions of dollars.

President Taft said in his speech at Cincinnati when a candidate for President, on September 22, 1906: "If I am elected President I promise the nation I will use every fiber of my being to carry out honestly and decently the tariff revision promises of the Republican platform." Two days later he said at Milwaukee: "It is my judgment that the revision of the tariff in accordance with the pledge of the Republican platform will be, on the whole, a substantial revision downward." After the Payne-Aldrich bill was passed which increased taxes he signed it, and called it "the best Republican tariff bill ever enacted."

According to Democratic faith in making all tariff schedules, the tariff tax should be lowest on the necessities of life, and highest on luxuries. The enormous tax provided for in the schedules of the Payne-Aldrich bill increased the price on every article on which it is levied, and helped to make the cost of living 60 per cent higher than it was ten years ago. A good law is that law which benefits the greatest number of people, and the Payne-Aldrich law will not stand this test.

There are four things every man wishes to obtain as cheaply as possible:

A home for himself, wife and children.

Clothing to protect them from the cold.

Edibles to support life.

Farming implements and mechanics' tools with which to labor.

Republicans in the existing tariff law put a tax on lumber, with which the home is built, and a heavy tax on woolen and cotton goods with which clothes are made, and a tax on edibles, and a tax on farming implements and mechanics' tools. Democrats have done all they could to make these articles free or as nearly free as possible, but President Taft as I have already stated, vetoed the bill and was sustained by the Republicans in Congress, as it required two-thirds of the members to pass the bill over his veto. The people have a great remedy—change of administration—elect a Democratic President of the United States, and turn Republicans out of office.

The conditions are favorable in various respects for change of administration, and especially because the Republican party is divided into two factions, the Insurgents and the Stalwarts. A distinguished Democratic Congressman said not long ago: "The difference between them is as to the amount of the loot." Insurgents say, "Rob by the protective tariff, but rob a little." The Stalwarts say, "Take it all," but Democracy appeals to the command which comes from Sinai and says, "Thou shalt not steal."

Farmers and Laboring Men.

I know I am addressing today an audience composed largely of farmers and laboring men, and I confess I have strong feelings and sentiments for everything that concerns them. I was reared on a farm, and although I practiced law many years I have also owned farms many years, and have a farm now. All classes and all kinds of business depend upon the prosperity and success of farmers and laboring men. When farm crops fail or diminish, business of all kinds languishes. I am in favor of co-operation and organization, both among farmers and laboring men.

A majority of our population live on farms and more than half our State taxes are paid by the farmers and the majority of our farmers are Democrats. The Democratic party has from the foundation of our government championed the farmer's cause, while the Republican party has crippled his interests and the interests of laboring men by compelling them to pay tribute to trusts, monopolies and combines, and carry the burden of oppressive taxation.

There should be no stay-at-home vote among the farmers and laboring men at the next State election. Democratic administrations have enacted every law on our statute books to improve agricultural conditions, while no Republican administration has to its credit a single act to uphold agriculture in this State, and when the late Republican convention was held at Louisville the platform adopted did not mention the farmer or laboring men, but the fourteenth plank of the Democratic platform is as follows: "We favor organization and co-operation among the farmers and the laborers of the State, and the enactment of such constitutional laws as will protect them from the greed and oppression of the trusts and monopolies of the country, which are the direct fruit of Republican legislation."

Kentucky had no Department of Agriculture until I had the honor to be Governor of the State. I recommended to the General Assembly the passage of a bill establishing a Department of Agriculture and authorizing the appointment of a Commissioner of Agriculture. This Department of Agriculture has rendered valuable service to the State, and its scope has been extended so as to include forestry and immigration. There was no Department of Agriculture when I entered Congress, and I introduced a bill to establish a Department of Agriculture, and the Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture reported a bill substantially the same as mine, and it was passed, and we now have a Secretary of Agriculture in the Cabinet of the President.

In 1906 a Democratic administration put the State Fair on a permanent basis, and provided for an annual State and County Farmers' Institute, and in this way the farmer's facilities for obtaining information have greatly increased, and the State Fair gives him an opportunity to see the best that is produced upon the farm, and laudable competition is encouraged among

There should be no politics in farmers' institutes, but it has been charged, and so far as I have been informed, not denied, that Republicans have prostituted the farmers' institutes into political machines.

From the farms as well as from the cities and towns come the soldiers who fight our battles in time of war, and from the farms as well as from the cities and towns come leaders in science, literature and art. Presidents of colleges and universities, and chief officers of banks and railroads and industrial institutions. From the farm also, as well as from the cities and towns, come Senators, Governors, Representatives in Congress, Judges and other officers, and two of the greatest Presidents furnished by the Democratic party, Jefferson and Jackson, were reared on farms, and two of the greatest Presidents furnished by the Republicans, Lincoln and McKinley, were reared on farms. Notwithstanding the conspicuous service rendered by farmers, they have been the main victims of Republican legislation. They have felt the terrible weight of the trusts, and the heavy burden of the tariff, both of which reach nearly everything the farmer buys or uses.

While I was in Congress I did all in my power to reduce the burdens of taxation and free the farmers from the clutches of trusts and monopolies, and I advocated taking the tax off tobacco every time I could get an opportunity.

Conclusion.
I have spoken longer than I intended. It will be a great honor for me to be elected Governor of Kentucky again.

I will be sincerely grateful to all who vote for me, and I will do all in my power to be worthy of their confidence and support.

Hopeful Democrats are watching Kentucky all over our great country, and victory for Democrats in Kentucky will probably mean victory for Democrats in the next Presidential election.

If every Democrat will do his duty at the November election we will carry our State for progress, for good government, and for the Democratic ticket by 20,000 majority.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. J. W. McDaniel, Eberton, Ill., says: There is no medicine which equals it for coughs, colds, Grippe, asthma, and Bronchitis. Look for the Bell on the Bottle.

Important Commercial deal.

Mrs. A. S. Cavender has sold to C. P. Mayes and H. V. Stone, each a third interest in her stock and the inventory is being made this week. Mr. Mayes has been with McConnell & Nunn until recently, when he resigned to engage in above business. Mr. Stone is well known in business circles, and the capabilities of these two gentlemen, added to Mrs. Cavender's well known taste in selecting novelties will make this firm a strong factor in the lines of trade they decide to deal in.

Diarrhoea is always more or less prevalent during September. Be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is prompt and effectual. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

FORMER SENATOR R. Q. MILLS DEAD

Parents And Sister Buried at Salem.

Corsicana, Texas, Sept. 2. —Former United States Senator Roger Q. Mills, of Texas, died at his home here today.

Senator Mills was born in Todd county, Ky., 79 years ago. When a child his parents moved to Salem, Ky., both of them are buried there also a sister, Mrs. Gordon. He is well remembered by many of the older people in his old Kentucky home, later when he became a man he moved to Texas starting out as a drug clerk and studying law at night until admitted to the bar. He entered the civil war as lieutenant-colonel of the Tenth Texas Infantry, C. S. A., later succeeding to command of that regiment. He was captured in January 1863, and for several months he was a prisoner of war at Columbus, Ohio. After his exchange he commanded regiments under Generals Bragg, Johnson and Hood.

His congressional career began in 1872 as representative at large from Texas, followed by four terms as congressman from the former fourth district of Texas. He was elected United States senator in 1892, serving until 1899, when he resigned and was succeeded by Charles A. Culberson.

Left Sunday for Market.

Again it is the pleasure of THE CRITTENDEN RECORD PRESS to announce to the buying public of Marion and vicinity that Mr. Sam Gugenheim, buyer for the firm of Yandell-Gugenheim Co., of this city, has gone to the Eastern markets for the purpose of purchasing the fall and winter merchandise for this old and well known firm.

Mr. Gugenheim has for the past thirty years been going to the markets twice a year to buy goods for his firm. He is the oldest dry goods merchant in the city in length of his business career if not in years and has in the thirty years of his huying amassed a knowledge of this art surpassed by no other merchant in a similar line in the country.

Before leaving Mr. Gugenheim told a representative of this paper that the firm had enjoyed a fine business the present year and that he expected to bring on this fall a fine and well assorted stock which will cover every want of their thousands of customers. Watch their ad on page 4 in all issues of this paper. It means money in your pockets.

For Sale.

Over three hundred High Class Barred Plymouth Rock birds for sale, $1.00 each. W. S. Lowery, Marion, Ky. 11-2

Will Leave for The Markets.

Maurie Nunn and W. Tom McConnell the popular proprietors of the dry goods store of this city bearing their names will leave Sunday for the eastern markets, where they go to buy their fall and winter stock of dry goods and other lines carried by them. They contemplate bringing on this year a stock of goods far superior to any heretofore handled and invite the people of Marion and Crittenden county to come in and examine their goods before making their fall purchases.

Mr. Nunn has only been a merchant of this city about a year but has, during that short space of time, built up a business which he and all of his friends are proud of, and he has done it by representing his goods to be just what they are and fair dealings to all. Before buying an interest in the store he was manager for Stinson Bros., in one of their big branch houses at Evansville Ind., which gave him much valuable experience. Mr. McConnell has been here in the county all his life and no man stands higher in business circles. They will keep in touch with the trade through these columns from time to time.

And The East.

Will Cannan and Gus Taylor, Marion's hustling and progressive young dry goods merchants, left Monday for Cincinnati and the East to purchase the fall stock for the Taylor and Cannan Dry Goods Co. located on Main Street in this city on the Masonic corner. They expect to be gone about six days, during which time they will endeavor to surpass any previous effort in bringing to Marion the most complete and comprehensive stock of dry goods and other lines handled by them that was ever displayed in this town all to be wrapped in the check paper bundles which have come to be recognized as the sign of bargains. Taylor and Cannan are one of the city's hustling business firms and since organizing some dozen or more years ago, have now built up to such a point as to be recognized as one of the best dry-goods houses in the country. Their announcement appears on page 5 of this paper in all issues.

Mrs. I. H. Clement was called to Sturgis on account of the illness and death of her cousin Mrs. Henry Dyer.

Revival Closes at Hebron.

Third Sunday night in Aug. Rev. G. Y. Wilson closed one of the greatest revivals ever held at Hebron. He was ably assisted by Rev. Sleamaker of Tolu, Ky a student of Vanderbilt training school and one of the most promising young men of the co. Morning services were conducted by Bro. Sleamaker and the evening services by Bro. Wilson. Sister Wilson was also present at most of the services and those who have had the pleasure of meeting her know what her presence in a revival service means —a better meeting and a greater service for the master.

The singing was conducted by Herschel Franklin with Miss Ruth Cook at the organ. The first week of the meeting, Mr. Clifton Threlkeld of carville song leader and Miss Ida Walker of Lola organist rendered valuable service in the choir as well as in altar services and personal work. There were 30 professions and 17 additions to the church, a revival in general.

Special Notice

The first week after the votes are turned in in any quantity we will award the 42 piece dinner set to the one turning in the most votes for each week, for 16 weeks. The sooner you turn in votes the better, but we will positively begin awards not later than Oct., 5th.
